

Dear Sir/Madam,

I would like to express my interest in working with you. Having recently arrived back in Australia from a year living in London and travelling Europe, I am now actively seeking new opportunities to work here at home and to gain new knowledge and experiences while advancing in my career. I believe my skill set and professional experience would be of great benefit to your company.

Much of my background is extensively in the field of Information and Communication Technology, although I have also sought out to keep my creative passions alive, and have found this to be of key benefit in all of my work. I am also always eager to try anything new.

Please find my attached CV. I look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you so much for your time.

Yours faithfully,

Mr Joshua J. Byrd
